FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE The Federation of the Aboriginal Nations of the Americas (FANA) Appoints H.E. Ambassador Gerren O'Neill, Chartered MCSI, as Ambassador-at-Large

The Federation of the Aboriginal Nations of the Americas (FANA) proudly announces the appointment of H.E. Ambassador Gerren O'Neill, Chartered MCSI, as Ambassador-at-Large. In this prestigious international role, Ambassador O'Neill will represent FANA across multiple continents, promoting the Federation's core values, interests, and diplomatic priorities on the global stage. His appointment underscores FANA's continued commitment to fostering international partnerships and advocating for the rights, recognition, and sovereignty of Indigenous Peoples throughout the Americas and beyond.

Ambassador O'Neill brings extensive experience in international diplomacy, financial governance, and intercultural relations. His leadership and vision will strengthen FANA's global presence, advance its diplomatic agenda, and support Indigenous-led initiatives focused on sustainable development and self-determination.

Ambassador O'Neill will report directly to Principal Chief Dr. Ronald Yonaguska Holloway, Ambassador Douglas Scott, and Chief Justice Lord Orville Thomas. FANA looks forward to the positive global impact of Ambassador O'Neill's representation and the continued advancement of its mission across Europe, the Americas, Africa, and Asia—working toward a future rooted in respect, sovereignty, and collaboration among all Indigenous Nations.
