Kinakwii Sovereign Confederacy

Peace Treaty

PREAMBLE

Know ye all people by these presents that we the undersigned Signatories to this Peace Treaty fully recognize the Sovereignty and inherent preeminent rights of the original people of the land, Indigenous Peoples, Hereditary Chiefs, Clan Mothers, Spiritual Leaders, Council of Hereditary Chiefs and Heads of States who have a commitment to work together combining collective strengths, knowledge, collective efforts and influence to channel those qualities into one common agenda, which is to set up an economic base to, in the first instance, address poverty, world famine, humanitarian relief, land stewardship and disaster management in the world. Secondly, to have a cohesive working party and realize that the long term effects are fundamental upon having projects, the latter of which must be realistic and viable, and which contribute to the building of economies in order to empower private sovereign nations under the direction of the Great Spirit to provide and care for their people, communities and dependents.
